

Appendix C Surgery & Management of Surgical Pain and Distress

1. Provide a complete description of the surgical procedure(s).
 - a. Surgical site preparation:

 - b. Surgical approach:

 - c. Any unique or special techniques:

 - d. Wound closure method, suture materials, and suture removal plan:

2. A. Provide a complete formulary of medications related to surgical procedures:

| | Agent | Dose | Route | Frequency/Duration |
|-------------------------|-------|------|-------|--------------------|
| Pre-anesthetic | | | | |
| Anesthetics | | | | |
| Analgesics | | | | |
| Fluid/blood replacement | | | | |
| Antibiotics | | | | |

- B. Who will conduct the anesthesia procedure(s)?

- C. What criteria will be used to assess anesthetic depth and how will this be monitored?

3. Describe the training/experience, including species of animals, of personnel conducting the anesthetic procedure?

4. Who will conduct the surgical procedure(s)?

5. Describe the training/experience, including species of animals, of personnel conducting surgical procedures?

6. Where will the surgical procedures be conducted?

7. Who will conduct and document post-procedural animal care? (post-op analgesia, nursing care, etc.) Include a plan of monitoring frequency, duration and intervals of post-op analgesia, nursing care, etc.

8. Emergency contact (pager/phone number) for evenings or weekends concerning post-operative complications.